Vandalism Will Be Investigated

Rising Sun town board member David Warnick spent his birthday painting the huge toy train in the town park playground. After the project was completed, someone damaged one of the train cars. Warnick said the damage was immediately repaired.

Mayor Travis Marion said the vandalism angered him. "Don't do it," Mayor Marion said, during a recent town meeting. He put any would-be vandals on notice, saying that town police will investigate.

"They will find you," the Mayor said.
