Cecil College Receives Donation From Rising Sun Chamber Of Commerce

Following the success of its June Sunfest, the Rising Sun Chamber of Commerce has contributed $2,500 to the Cecil College Foundation in support of the Rising Sun Chamber of Commerce Scholarship.

The scholarship was established in 1999 for students in a business-related degree program to help foster future business leaders in the area. Thanks to its fundraising events, the chamber is able to create and support scholarships.

The mission of the Rising Sun Chamber of Commerce is to promote commercial and business prosperity in Rising Sun and its surrounding communities and to promote the growth and development of business and professional services, both large and small, with respect to improving both commercial and residential conditions.
