OBITUARIES

Ruth Bell Hartman

Ruth Bell Hartman of Elkton, MD, died peacefully Monday, February 26, 2018, at Seasons Hospice at Christiana Hospital. She was 83.

Ruth was born in Gladys, VA, the daughter of Mary (Hall) and William Bell. She graduated from William Campbell High School in Naruna, VA. Ruth moved to Richmond, VA, in 1952 where she worked for Virginia Electric Company, for nine years. She then went to work for Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, in Richmond, from 1963 to 1984.

Ruth met Ron Hartman while living in Richmond and they married in 1978. She devoted her life to him and her dearest daughter, Donna Mitchell. The family spent many camping weekends at Buggs Island Lake where Ruth's black Lab, "Buggs", became part of the family. The family traveled to St. Maarten's with friends for over 20 years enjoying sun, water and fine foods, and playing cribbage/pinochle with the Carrs.

Ruth's real loves were to sit and watch her bluebirds and spend countless hours in her flower beds where she was hand and hand with God. Ruth became a member of Moore's Chapel UMC in 2000 and that became the backbone of her soul.

Ruth is survived by her husband, Ron Hartman; daughter, Donna Mitchell of Randleman, NC; sisters, June Bell Colbert and Rebecca Bell Mitchell; brother, Edwin Bell; and numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents; seven brothers; and three sisters.

The family wishes to specifically thank Naomi, Sherry and Betty for the exceptional care and love they extended to Ruth over the last two years, along with many others.

The family will have a Memorial Service to celebrate Ruth's life at 11 a.m., Saturday, April 7, 2018, at Moore's Chapel United Methodist Church, 392 Blake Road, Elkton, MD.

In lieu of flowers, one may make a contribution to the Moore's Chapel Building Fund, in care of Hicks Home for Funerals, 103 W. Stockton Street, Elkton, MD 21921.
